Encouraging the Use of New York Subcontractors and Suppliers

New York State businesses have a substantial presence in State contracts and strongly contribute to the economies of the state and the nation. In recognition of their economic activity and leadership in doing business in New York State, Bidders for this contract for commodities, services or technology are strongly encouraged and expected to consider New York State businesses in the fulfillment of the requirements of the contract. Such partnering may be as subcontractors, suppliers, protégés or other supporting roles.

Bidders need to be aware that all authorized users of this contract will be strongly encouraged, to the maximum extent practical and consistent with legal requirements, to use responsible and responsive New York State businesses in purchasing commodities that are of equal quality and functionality and in utilizing services and technology. Furthermore, Bidders are reminded that they must continue to utilize small, minority and women-owned business, consistent with current State law.

Utilizing New York State businesses in State contracts will help create more private sector jobs, rebuild New York's infrastructure, and maximize economic activity to the mutual benefit of the contractor and its New York State business partners. New York State businesses will promote the contractor's optimal performance under the contract, thereby fully benefiting the public sector programs that are supported by associated procurements.

Public procurements can drive and improve the State's economic engine through promotion of the use of New York businesses by its contractors. The State therefore expects Bidders to provide maximum assistance to New York businesses in their use of the contract. The potential participation by all kinds of New York businesses will deliver great value to the State and its taxpayers.

The Bidder can demonstrate their commitment to the use of New York state businesses by responding to the question below.

Vendor Responsibility Questionnaire Certification

Vendors are encouraged to file the required Vendor Responsibility Questionnaire online via the New York State VendRep System. To enroll in and use the New York State VendRep System, see the VendRep System Instructions available at https://www.osc.ny.gov/state-vendors/vendrep/vendrep-system or go directly to the VendRep System online at https://onlineservices.osc.state.ny.us. For direct VendRep System user assistance, the Office of the State Comptroller Help Desk may be reached at 866-370-4672 or 518-408-4672 or at https://www.osc.ny.gov/online-services/get-help.Vendors may opt to file a paper questionnaire; the appropriate questionnaire form can be obtained from the VendRep https://www.osc.ny.gov/state-vendors/vendrep/vendor-responsibility-forms, or vendors may contact the authorized contact at OPWDD or the Office of the State Comptroller Help Desk for a copy of the paper form.

Vendors enrolled in the online VendRep System are also reminded to recertify existing questionnaires every six months or whenever changes that affect their business entity occur.

Vendor Responsibility Certification

Please check the appropriate box indicating what mechanism has been utilized to submit the Vendor Responsibility Questionnaire; the Questionnaire is to be submitted/certified prior to the bid due date.

The Bidder is to indicate the format utilized by checking the appropriate box:

☐ On-Line Certified Format (Preferred) or ☐ Hard Copy, Paper Format

Note: If utilizing a hard copy, paper format, that hard copy must be included with the bid quote submission. If utilizing the online format, the Vendor Responsibility Questionnaire must be certified by the bid due date. Failure to provide the required Vendor Responsibility Questionnaire may result in the bid being rejected for not meeting the minimum mandatory requirement.

Vendor Registration Requirement

The New York State Vendor Management Unit (VMU) relies on State Business Units to obtain a completed Substitute Form W-9 for any vendor not already registered. Any vendor that wants to do business with New York State must complete a Substitute Form W-9, which may be accessed on the NYS Office of the State Comptroller's Web site at the following link: https://www.osc..ny.gov/vendors/forms/ac3237s_fe.pdf.

Submit the completed form with the required bid documentation. For more information about NYS Vendor Management, please access the NYS Office of State Comptroller's website using the following link: http://www.osc..ny.gov/state-vendors.

Vendor Assurance of No Conflict of Interest or Detrimental Effect

The Firm offering to provide services pursuant to this Contract, as a contractor, joint venture contractor, subcontractor or consultant, attests that its performance of the services outlined in this Contract does not and will not create a conflict of interest with nor position the Firm to breach any other contract currently in force with the State of New York.

Furthermore, the Firm attests that it will not act in any manner that is detrimental to any State project on which the Firm is rendering services. Specifically, the Firm attests that:

1. The fulfillment of obligations by the Firm, as proposed in the response, does not violate any existing contracts or agreements between the Firm and the State.
2. The fulfillment of obligations by the Firm, as proposed in the response, does not and will not create any conflict of interest, or perception thereof, with any current role or responsibility that the Firm has with regard to any existing contracts or agreements between the Firm and the State.
3. The fulfillment of obligations by the Firm, as proposed in the response, does not and will not compromise the Firm's ability to carry out its obligations under any existing contracts between the Firm and the State.
4. The fulfillment of any other contractual obligations that the Firm has with the State will not affect or influence its ability to perform under any contract with the State.
5. During the negotiation and execution of any contract, the Firm will not knowingly take any action or make any decision which creates a potential for conflict of interest or might cause a detrimental impact to the State as a while including, but not limited to any action or decision to divert resources from one State project to another.
6. In fulfilling obligations under each of its State contracts, the Firm will act in accordance with the terms of each of its State contracts and will not knowingly take any action or make any decision which might cause a detrimental impact to the State as a whole, including but not limited to any action or decision to divert resources from one State project to another.
7. No former officer or employee of the State who is now employed by the Firm, nor any former officer or employee of the Firm who is now employed by the State, has played a role with regard to the administration of this contract procurement in a manner that may violate Section 73(8)(a) of the State Ethics Law; and
8. The Firm has not and shall not offer to any employee, member or director of the State any gift, whether in the form of money, service, loan, travel, entertainment, hospitality, thing or promise, or in any other form, under circumstances in which it could reasonably be inferred that the gift was intended to influence said employee, member or director, or could reasonably be expected to influence said employee, member or director, in the performance of the official duty of said employee, member or director, or was intended as a reward for any official action on the part of said employee, member or director.

Firms should note that the State recognizes that conflicts may occur in the future because a Firm may have existing or new relationships. The State will review the nature of any such new relationship and reserves the right to terminate the contract for cause if, in its judgment, a real or potential conflict of interest cannot be cured.

Executive Order 177 Anti-Discrimination Certification

The New York State Human Rights Law, Article 15 of the Executive Law, prohibits discrimination and harassment on the basis of age, race, creed, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy or pregnancy-related conditions, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, marital status, familial status, domestic violence victim status, prior arrest or conviction record, military status, or predisposing genetic characteristics.

The Human Rights Law may also require reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities and pregnancy-related conditions. A reasonable accommodation is an adjustment to a job or work environment that enables a person with a disability to perform the essential functions of a job in a reasonable manner. The Human Rights Law may also require reasonable accommodation in employment on the basis of Sabbath observance or religious practices.

Generally, the Human Rights Law applies to:

- all employers of four or more people, employment agencies, labor organizations, and apprenticeship training programs in all instances of discrimination or harassment;
- employers with fewer than four employees in all cases involving sexual harassment; and
- any employer of domestic workers in cases involving sexual harassment or harassment based on gender, race, religion, or national origin.

In accordance with Executive Order No. 177, the Bidder hereby certifies that it does not have institutional policies or practices that fail to address the harassment and discrimination of individuals on the basis of age, race, creed, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, marital status, or other protected status under the Human Rights Law.

Executive Order No. 177 and this certification do not affect institutional policies or practices that are protected by existing law, including but not limited to the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, Article 1 Section 3 of the New York State Constitution, and Section 296(11) of the New York State Human Rights Law.

Certification Under Executive Order No. 16

Prohibiting State Agencies and Authorities from Contracting with Businesses Conducting Business in Russia

Executive Order No. 16 provides that "all Affected State Entities are directed to refrain from entering into any new contract or renewing any existing contract with an entity conducting business operations in Russia." The complete text of Executive Order No. 16 can be found at https://ogs.ny.gov/EO-16.

The Executive Order remains in effect while sanctions imposed by the federal government are in effect. Accordingly, vendors who may be excluded from award because of current business operations in Russia are nevertheless encouraged to respond to solicitations to preserve their contracting opportunities in case the sanctions are lifted during a solicitation or even after award in the case of some solicitations.

Is Vendor an entity conducting business operations in Russia, as defined above? Please answer by checking one of the following boxes:

☐ 1. No, Vendor does not conduct business operations in Russia within the meaning of Executive Order No. 16.

☐ 2.a. Yes, Vendor conducts business operations in Russia within the meaning of Executive Order No. 16 but has taken steps to wind down business operations in Russia or is in the process of winding down business operations in Russia. (Please provide a detailed description of the wind down process and a schedule for completion)

☐ 2.b. Yes, Vendor conducts business operations in Russia within the meaning of Executive Order No. 16 but only to the extent necessary to provide vital health and safety services in Russia or to comply with federal law, regulations, executive orders, or directives. (Please provide a detailed description of the services being provided or the relevant laws, regulations, etc.)

☐ 3. Yes, Vendor conducts business operations in Russia within the meaning of Executive Order No. 16.

The undersigned certifies under penalty of perjury that they are knowledgeable about the Vendor's business and operations and that the answer provided herein is true to the best of their knowledge and belief.
